CALL FOR SCHOLARSHIPS – MASTERS (MPHIL) AND DOCTORAL STUDIES

The Copperbelt University Africa Centre of Excellence for Sustainable Mining (CBU ACESM) is a Centre supported by the World Bank through the Government of the Republic of Zambia. The CBU-ACESM provides leadership in post-graduate education and training for sustainable mining. It promotes multidisciplinary research at Masters and Doctoral levels to address problems surrounding sustainable mining.

CBU-ACESM is looking for highly qualified and motivated scientists interested in research in the following themes:

- (i) Occupational health, vulnerabilities and risks to communities in mining environments;
- (ii) Restoration of mined and derelict environments, and waste management;
- (iii) Energy use, process and mining design;
- (iv) Monitoring biodiversity and ecosystem impacts; and
- (v) Livelihoods, entrepreneurship and corporate social responsibility.

The research topics should exhibit some measure of academic and socio-economic relevance linked to the objectives of the CBU-ACESM.

The CBU-ACESM is therefore pleased to announce availability of scholarships for specific Masters (MPhil.) and Doctoral (PhD) programmes by research at the Copperbelt University as follows:
